020.713
M662Y

Questions for Examination
March 18, 1895

1. Write from dictation numbers in a column.
2. Write the following numbers in decimal form: seven hundred and ninety-five ten thousandths; six and three hundred and forty eight thousandths;

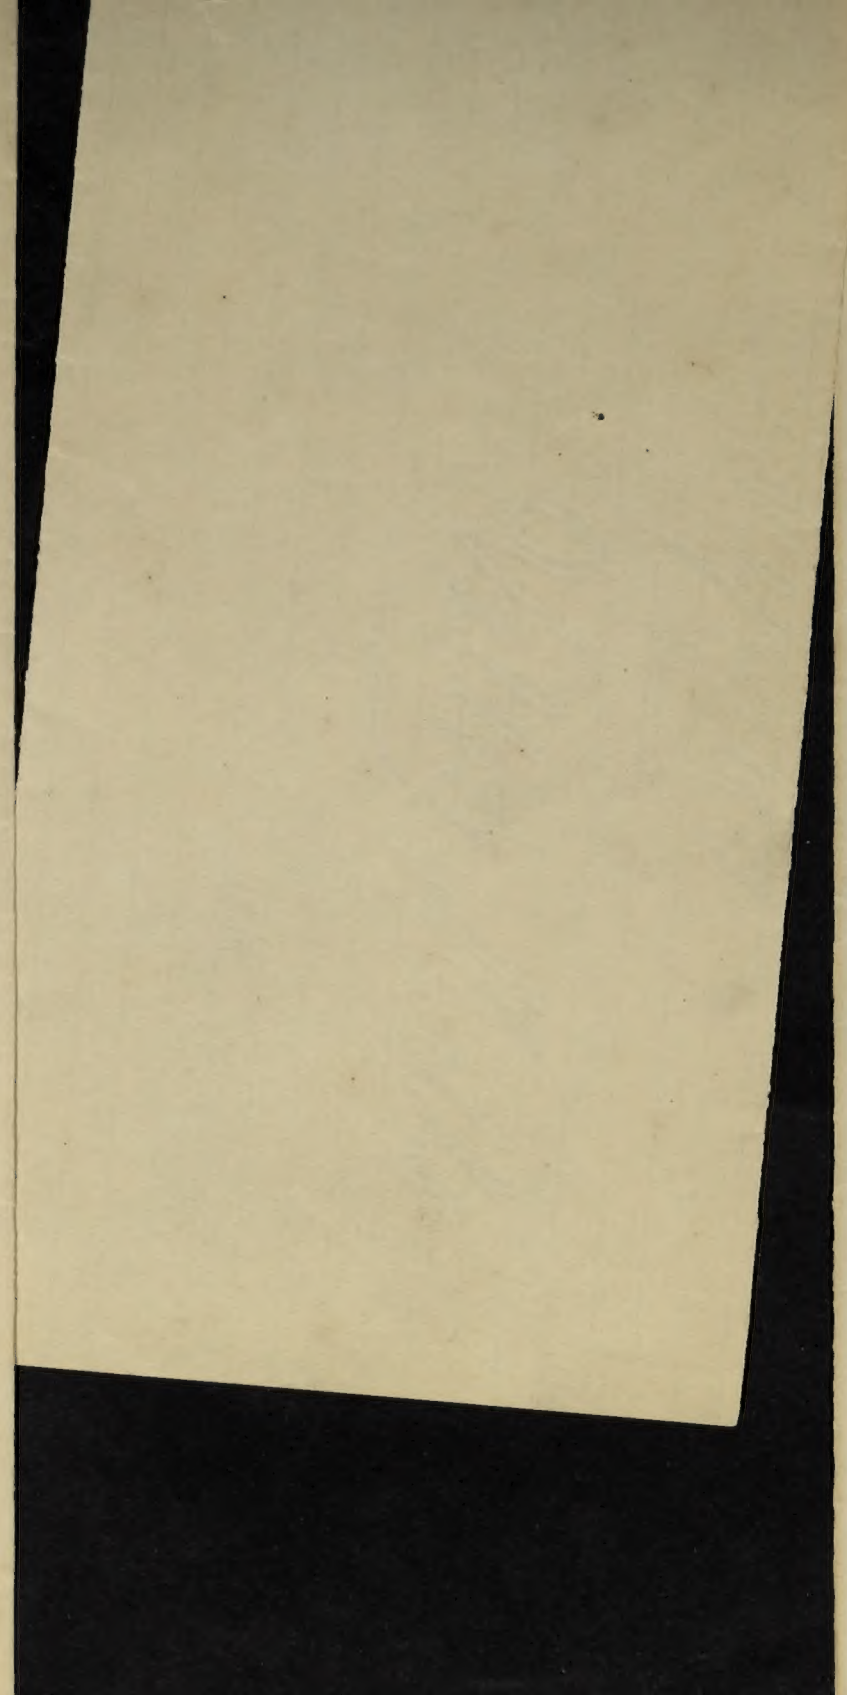
What do you understand by the following letters? A.D. MDCCCXCV

Name 5 important American daily newspapers not published in Milwaukee.

Name 5 important American magazines or reviews
" " " English " " "
" " " weekly journals (having no daily edition).

If a visitor wanted information on some current scientific topic to what magazine would you refer him?

Name five important American historians and the titles of one or more of their chief works

11. Name five leading English novelists and one or two books by each.
12. Name five leading foreign (not British) novelists.
13. In what book by what author will each of the following characters be found.
    1. Ophelia, 2. Eva St. Clair, 3. Guinevere. 4. Mephistopheles. 5. Uriah Heep.
14. Give the author and title of some book which you have recently read and tell what you enjoyed in it.
15. Mention five recent books of note.
16. Mention five good books for children.
17. Name five great composers of music.
18. Who was (1) Cornot; (2) Dom Pedro; (3) George William Curtis, (4) Frederick Douglass; (5) Alexander III?
19. For what are the following men noted? (1) Edison; (2) Howe; (3) McCormick, (4) Whitney; (5) Fulton.
20. What qualities do you think a person in public employment needs in dealing with the public?


Milwaukee (Wis.) pub. lib.